Sandy Campbell Awarded the 2025 Bill and Sarah Ransom Community Service Award

Sayre, PA – The Community Foundation for the Twin Tiers (CFTT) and the Waverly Rotary Club proudly announce Sandy Campbell as the recipient of the 2025 Bill and Sarah Ransom Community Service Award. This prestigious award celebrates individuals who demonstrate exceptional dedication to community service, leadership, and an unwavering commitment to the Valley community.

Sandy, a retired Sayre High School science teacher and long-serving member of the Army with over 19 years of service, has become the heart of the Sayre Salvation Army. Her steady, humble leadership and extraordinary generosity keep its operations running smoothly and compassionately.

A daily volunteer at the Salvation Army pantry, Sandy does whatever is needed, from organizing orders to picking up and delivering food. She quietly ensures that every person is treated with dignity, warmth, and respect. She arrives each day ready to prepare food, organize supplies, assist families, and support her fellow volunteers.

Sandy's impact goes far beyond the countless hours she volunteers. Over the past year, she helped prepare and serve 4,809 meals through Senior Group meals and soup kitchen programs, supported more than 800 families by organizing, ordering, and distributing food through the pantry, and assisted with holiday food distribution for 821 individuals.

Sandy is a driving force in holiday operations as well, volunteering for Christmas in July and bell-ringing efforts that help raise unrestricted funds for local programs. Beyond her service to the community, Sandy is also a caretaker for her sister and remains committed to her own well-being by staying active. Through it all, she remains humble, never seeking recognition. She simply believes in helping others, and she does so with deep compassion. In recognition of this honor, Sandy selected the Sayre Salvation Army to receive the accompanying $800 donation.

CFTT and the Waverly Rotary Club extend heartfelt gratitude to everyone who contributes to the Bill and Sarah Ransom Community Service Award Fund. Their support helps shine a light on inspiring individuals like Sandy Campbell, whose selfless dedication strengthens and uplifts the entire Valley community.
