CFTT Helps Local Nonprofits Shine During NEPA Gives — Over $45,700 Raised in Bradford & Sullivan Counties

Sayre, PA – The Community Foundation for the Twin Tiers (CFTT) is proud to announce that because of the partnership with NEPA Gives, more than $45,700 was raised to support local nonprofit organizations. This exciting effort not only provided funding but also gave nonprofits a powerful platform to share their missions, engage new supporters, and raise awareness about their vital work.

This was the first year CFTT partnered with other Community Foundations to include Bradford, Potter, Sullivan and Tioga, PA Counties in NEPA Gives, Northeastern Pennsylvania’s largest 24-hour online giving event. The impact was immediate and inspiring: dozens of local organizations saw increased visibility and direct support from generous donors throughout the region.

“We’re thrilled with the community’s response,” said Joselyn Allen-Elford, CFTT’s Resource Development Associate. “By bringing NEPA Gives to our region, we were able to put a spotlight on the incredible work our local nonprofits do every day. The funds raised are only part of the story, the awareness and new connections made are just as important.”

A Powerful New Platform for Local Nonprofits

NEPA Gives is more than a fundraising event, it's a movement that brings people together to support causes that matter most in their communities. For nonprofits in Bradford and Sullivan Counties, NEPA Gives offered a unique chance to amplify their message and attract new donors, all through a single online platform. CFTT is excited to continue this opportunity in 2026 and encourages eligible nonprofits to begin preparing now.

Since its founding in 2019, NEPA Gives has helped raise millions of dollars across the region, uniting communities in a shared mission of giving and support.
